Multiple media reports from Las Vegas indicate a Chillicothe man, Blake Valbracht, was arrested after police responded to a reported fight early Friday morning that claimed the life of another man.

A preliminary investigation conducted by Homicide detectives at Las Vegas indicates two men were involved in a physical altercation when the victim fell to the ground and became unresponsive.

The suspect, who remained at the scene and surrendered to officers, was identified as 29 year-old Blake Valbracht. He now faces a murder charge at Las Vegas.

The security guard, whom authorities said was un-armed, was pronounced dead at a hospital in Las Vegas.

The identity of that victim and the cause of death has not been released pending an autopsy by the Clark County, Nevada coroner's office.
