A Galt man was hurt when he was thrown from an all terrain vehicle in a pasture while moving cattle.

Charles Wilford of Galt was taken to Liberty Hospital by medical helicopter. The highway patrol described his injuries as moderate.

The accident happened late Friday morning, July 26th in a pasture four miles north of Galt when the patrol reported Wilford made an abrupt left turn, and was thrown from the right side of the ATV.

He was not wearing a safety device. Damage to the ATV was listed as minor.
