Sheriff Steve Stockman has been named Sheriff of the Year by the Missouri Deputy Sheriffs' Association.

A deputy now with the Mercer county sheriffs' office, Jimmy See, has been selected as the deputy of the year by the same association. The recognition was posted on a Facebook site for the Mercer County Sheriff's department.

Jimmy See, prior to taking the Mercer County job, was a deputy for the Grundy County sheriff's department.

The awards ceremony by the deputy sheriff's association will be August 6th at a Lake of the Ozarks location. It will be part of the 26th annual training session.

Lou Collobert of Mercer County is listed as the president of the Missouri deputy sheriffs' association.

The association was founded 25 years ago (1988) representing deputies, jailers, county detention or corrections officers, and others employed by a sheriff's department.
