The Highway Patrol reports the arrest of a Mercer woman who now faces drug charges in addition to those related to alleged bad checks.

35 year old Mary Lou Miller of Route 1, Mercer was taken into custody Friday night in Mercer County. Three felony counts accuse Ms. Miller of possession of controlled substances.

The online highway patrol arrest information identifies the substances as methamphetamine, hydrocodone, and alprazolam.

Bond for these counts was set at 20 thousand dollars pending arraignment in the associate division of the Mercer County Circuit Court.

Mary Miller also was arrested on three warrants accusing misdemeanor passing bad checks, less than 500 dollars each making them misdemeanors.

Court records indicate the alleged bad checks were issued in February of last year as well as dates in March and May of this year. Bonds on the check charges totals 15-hundred dollars.
