Felony charges were filed today in Livingston County in connection with a man accused of alleged involvement in what Chillicothe Police called a domestic dispute.

27 year old Travis Hogan is charged with domestic assault in the first degree, inflicting serious physical injury to another person on Saturday.

Chillicothe Police, in a news release, said the incident happened in the 14-hundred block of Bryan Street. Chillicothe Police reported a female victim was injured and later transported to St. Luke's of Kansas City. Police indicated the woman, who's name was not released, sustained what is called non life-threatening injuries.

The news item from Chillicothe Police over the weekend described Hogan as being from Chillicothe. On-line court records today for Livingston County show Travis Hogan with an address on Route Z at Dawn.
