

July Weather Summary At Trenton

News

Posted by : Randy

Posted on : 2013/8/2 4:27:20

The July weather summary shows below average temperatures and precipitation at Trenton.

Highs averaged three degrees below normal with lows a degree below typical.

Highs averaged slightly over 86 degrees at Trenton with lows averaging 65 degrees.

There was a record low of 50 degrees on July 28th with six other dates in July having lows in the 50s.

The hottest temperature at Trenton in July was 99 degrees on July 9th at the fire station where The official readings are taken. It was 98 on July 18th and 19th.

The high temperature at KTTN in downtown Trenton was two degrees cooler on each of those three days.

Highs were several degrees below normal during eight of the final nine days of the month. One of those highs was just 69 on July 29th.

Rainfall at Trenton in July totaled two inches and 61 hundredths That's one inch 62 hundreds Below average for July

June and July combined at Trenton had a moisture deficit of about two-point-six inches.

However, precipitation for the year continues to run ahead of average at Trenton, largely because of the amounts in April and May. The surplus for the year at Trenton is more than three and one half inches.