There were 74 entries in the beef show Saturday at the North Central Missouri Fair at Trenton. That's five more than last year.

Rachelle Parks of Princeton had the supreme champion bull while Morgan Reed of Gilman City exhibited the reserve champion bull.

Bill Jennings of Bethany showed the supreme market animal. Emma Clark of Milan had the reserve market.

Franklin Goforth of Savannah exhibited the supreme champion female. Zane Reed of Gilman City showed the reserve champion female.

Showmanship winners were Haley Fitzpatrick of Wheeling among persons ages 15 and over, Katherine Goforth from Savannah among those 11 to 14, and Victoria Washburn of King City among persons eight to ten.
