There also are what gallery director Jim Norris calls unique landscapes created from cloth and mixed media pieces constructed from women's shoes.

Norris said this year's show is the very best the Doris Rider Gallery has had, featuring local artists. The show is called "Local Artists Showcase Six." It can be seen now through October 4th.

The gallery is in the Frey administrative building on the North Central Missouri College campus in Trenton

Regular hours at the Doris Rider Art Gallery are from 8:30 until 4:30 Monday through Friday. The gallery also can be seen on selected weekend and evening hours by appointment.
