

Chula Street Fair Set To Kick Off September 21

<http://www.kttn.com/kgofm/modules/news/article.php?storyid=19852>

Chula Street Fair Set To Kick Off September 21

News

Posted by : Randy

Posted on : 2013/9/4 4:49:02

The Chula Street Fair begins September 21st with biscuits and gravy available at the firehouse from 7 until 10 o'clock, served by Chula Fire and Rescue. The breakfast is a free will donation.

There's a baby show at 9 o'clock. It has a three dollar registration fee. A parade is at 10. The theme of the parade is "Blue Jeans And Country Dreams." Ann Meservey is the Grand Marshal.

A community center food stand opens at 10, with a washer tournament at 11 o'clock, and a free Mini mud boggers event at 11:30. Street games are at noon with carnival games planned from noon until 9 o'clock.

A pedal pull is at 2 o'clock and what's called Hick Olympics from 3 until 6 o'clock. The Hicks Olympics involve four member co-ed teams. Each person must be at least a high school freshman.

A Lifeflight medical helicopter is to be displayed At 11 o'clock behind the community center, weather permitting, and if it's not needed for a medical call.