The Milan Lady Wildcats, in non-conference action on Thursday night, fell to Schuyler County by a score of 4-2.

Brookelyn Rardon had a two-run single to supply the Lady 'Cats offense in the top of the fifth. Two errors in the bottom of the fifth inning gave the Lady Rams two unearned runs, the lead, and eventually, the win.

Kenna Michael threw the first five innings, with Kyley Doak tossing the sixth, for Milan in the loss. All four runs given up were UN-EARNED.

The Milan JV beat Schuyler County 10-3.
