An Albany man was killed on Friday morning when the tractor-trailer unit he was driving went off Highway 169 just south of Stanberry.

Fifty-seven year old Donald West was pronounced dead at the scene.

The Highway Patrol said the southbound truck went off the left side of the road, continued along the side of the road about 400 feet, then traveled 900 feet into the cornfield before coming to rest. Damage to the truck was minor.

It was unknown whether Donald West was using a seat belt.
