The Trenton Middle School Bulldogs opened the 2013 season at home on Tuesday night, hosting the Carrollton Trojans at C.F. Russell Stadium.

Turnovers and time of possession proved to be the Bulldog undoing, as they dropped an 18-0 decision to the Trojans. Trenton lost the ball three times on fumbles and once by interception. All three Trojan touchdowns were scored by quarterback Tyson Thomas. The first came with 6:53 to go in the second quarter, on a run of 12 yards. Carrollton, after taking the football to start the third quarter, held the ball for the entire stanza, and found pay-dirt from a yard away on the first play of the fourth. The final score came from 32 yards out with 93 seconds left in the game.

TMS will next play on Tuesday, September 17th, hosting the Polo Panthers in a 6 o'clock kickoff from C.F. Russell Stadium.
